NTER
National Threat Evaluation and Reporting
Threat Evaluation and Reporting Course

The Threat Evaluation and Reporting Course (TERC) is a three-day course that will teach participants how to apply Behavioral Threat Assessment and Management (BTAM) best practices to assist in preventing acts of targeted violence, such as, but not limited to, terrorism, school shootings, or mass attacks in public spaces, by identifying those threats or observable behaviors that may indicate the potential for violence. The TERC teaches students to utilize a four-step BTAM model to identify, investigate, assess, and manage individuals who display threats or observable behaviors that may concern others.

The TERC prepares BTAM teams to develop intervention techniques designed to move individuals away from conducting a potential attack. It emphasizes the importance of community involvement in violence prevention - to include supporting interventions for individuals while respecting their constitutional rights, privacy, civil rights, and civil liberties.

INSTRUCTED BY NTER-CERTIFIED MASTER TRAINERS

Participants will:

o   Define and understand the history of targeted violence
o   Identify the elements and the purpose of the Pathway to Violence Model
o   Learn to apply the four-step BTAM Model while adhering to individual's constitutional rights, privacy, civil rights, and civil liberties

Identify 1 — Investigate 2 — Assess 3 — Manage 4 — Individual

WHO TO CONTACT

For more information and resources regarding the Threat Evaluation and Reporting Course, or to get in contact with a local Certified Master Trainer, please reach out to

Homeland Security

| DHS, NTER | NTER.MTP@hq.dhs.gov | N/a |