

KNOW2PROTECT™

DIGITAL DEFENSE ALL-OUT BINGO

Level up your internet safety skills with All-Out Bingo. Check off squares for things you complete and fill in the whole card.

B	I	N	G	O
Set all social media, apps and gaming profiles to private.	Check your profiles and remove any personal info.	Talk to a trusted adult about which apps need location services.	Create steps to follow if you see inappropriate content online.	Read K2P's Key Definitions on know2protect.gov .
Download the Top 10 Tips2Protect for Teens .	Go through your friends lists and remove strangers.	Read the Social Media and Online Tips2Protect on know2protect.gov .	Identify a trusted adult you can talk to about online safety.	Make a list of fun outdoor activities you can do without electronics.
Ask a teacher about having a Project iGuardian® presentation.	Update your profile picture with a Project iGuardian avatar.		Tell a friend to never send pictures or videos to someone they don't know.	Watch the Know2Protect PSA on know2protect.gov .
Spend an hour outside without electronics.	Fill out the Online Safety Agreement with a parent or guardian.	Create steps to follow if a friend confides in you about online CSEA.	Turn off location tracking on all unnecessary apps.	Download K2P's Internet Safety Checklist .
Look up how exploitation happens on K2P Kids.	Read " Something Happened – What Can I Do? " on know2protect.gov .	Tell a friend how to report online CSEA.	Download Fake Profiles – Tips2Identify on know2protect.gov .	Talk to your friends about ways to stay safe online.