

Prevention Provider

For the purposes of CP3, a "prevention provider" is a skilled and knowledgeable professional who:

- Directly or indirectly prevents violence by helping people develop the knowledge, attitudes, and skills they need to achieve safe, positive, healthy outcomes; and/or
- Institutes protective factors and addresses risk factors for risk reduction within a community; and/or
- Provides services for individuals, as needed, to prevent violence; and/or
- Serves as a violence-prevention policy maker or program manager.

Center for Prevention Programs and Partnerships

