

Targeted Violence and Terrorism Prevention Partner Resource Guide

The Center for Prevention Programs and Partnerships (CP3) connects targeted violence and terrorism prevention (TVTP) providers, curates research and best practices, and helps states and communities build strategies and programs. This list of Department of Homeland Security (DHS) resources provides a comprehensive overview of funding, technical assistance, regional contacts, training, and educational materials to help keep your community safe.

What funding opportunities are available to support my community?

- Targeted Violence and Terrorism Prevention Grant Program: Funding for state, local, tribal, and territorial governments; nonprofits; and institutions of higher education to establish or enhance capabilities to prevent targeted violence and terrorism. Contact: terrorismprevention@hq.dhs.gov
- Nonprofit Security Grant Program: Funding for facility hardening and physical security enhancements for nonprofit organizations at high risk of terrorist attack. Contact: fema-nsgp@fema.dhs.gov
- Homeland Security Grant Program: Risk-based grants to assist state, local, tribal, and territorial efforts in preventing, protecting against, mitigating, responding to, and recovering from acts of terrorism and other threats
- Additional Grant Resources: More opportunities and resources available through the Department of Homeland Security, Department of Justice, Department of Education, and Department of Health and Human Services

Who can I contact for technical assistance in my community?

- Regional Prevention Coordinators: Training, technical assistance, and advice on prevention programs and strategies. Contact: cp3field@hq.dhs.gov
- Protective Security Advisors: Physical vulnerability assessments, emergency action planning, and incident coordination for critical infrastructure operators, houses of worship, schools, and other organizations. Contact: central@cisa.dhs.gov
- Domestic Security Strategists: Research, training, and consultation on behavioral threat assessment and the prevention of targeted violence from the U.S. Secret Service National Threat Assessment Center (NTAC). Contact: NTAC-DSSS@usss.ds.gov
- FEMA Federal Preparedness Coordinators: Training, technical assistance, and advice on prevention programs and strategies.

What training is available for me and my community?

- Emergency Management and Active Shooting Trainings: How to plan for emergency situations, identify behavioral indicators, make action plans, and quickly recover from an active shooter incident
- Community Awareness Briefings \(CAB\): Understanding the threat landscape, behavioral indicators associated with acts of targeted violence, public health-informed approach to prevention, resources, tools, programs, and how to get involved. Contact: cp3field@hq.dhs.gov

- Federal Law Enforcement Training Centers: Trainings for those who protect the homeland, including state, local, and tribal departments throughout the U.S., as well as schools, universities, workplaces, and organizations with public safety responsibilities
- United States Secret Service National Threat Assessment Center: Threat assessment and targeted violence prevention trainings for state and local law enforcement, schools, universities, workplaces, and organizations with public safety responsibilities. Contact: NTAC-DSS@usss.dhs.gov
- Tabletop Exercise Packages: How to assess your organization's preparedness and security posture with scenarios and discussion questions
- Targeted Violence Mass Casualty Hospital Response Workshop and Active Shooter Leadership Course: Focused on improving coordination within and across hospitals' response against a complex coordinated terrorist attack (CCTA) or other violence-related mass-casualty incidents, and safeguarding organizational employees by equipping leadership with the skills needed to prevent, prepare for, mitigate, respond to, and recover from an active shooter incident or other targeted violence in the workplace. Contact: FEMA-OITA-ActionOffice@dema.dhs.gov
- Center for Domestic Preparedness: Includes training on preparedness, protection, and response. Contact: <https://cdp.dhs.gov/> or <https://www.firstrespondertraining.gov/frts/npsc>
- Behavioral Threat Assessment and Management Instructor Development and Certification: Offered by the National Threat Evaluation and Reporting (NTER) Program Office for Federal, State, Local, Tribal, and Territorial partners to assist in empowering agencies and communities to identify, report, and mitigate threats of terrorism and targeted violence. Contact: NTER.MTP@hq.dhs.gov
- Foundations of Targeted Violence Prevention eLearning: A national bystander awareness training offered by the NTER Program Office. It is meant to educate the public on threatening or potentially concerning behaviors and where to report them, providing an opportunity for intervention to prevent targeted violence from occurring.
- Office for Bombing Prevention (OPB) Training Program: Designed to build nationwide Counter-Improvised Explosive Device (C-IED) core capabilities and enhance awareness of terrorist threats. Contact: obptraining@cisa.dhs.gov

Where can I get more information on the threat?

- Homeland Threat Assessment (HTA): Defining the most direct, pressing threats to public safety, border and immigration, critical infrastructure, and economic security during the next year
- Homeland Security Information Network: Information sharing between federal, state, local, territorial, tribal, international, and private sector partners. Contact: HSIN@hq.dhs.gov
- National Terrorism Advisory System: Information on specific or imminent terrorist threats or a change in the terrorism threat level
- TRIPwire: An online, collaborative information-sharing and resource portal designed to help prevent improvised explosive device incidents.

Where can I get more information on what to do to mitigate threats?

- Prevention Resource Finder: Community support resources, grant funding opportunities, information sharing platforms, evidence-based research, and training opportunities for communities to reduce the risk of targeted violence

- Schoolsafety.gov: Tools, resources, webinars, trainings, and funding opportunities from federal agencies to support administrators, educators, and parents
- K-12 School Security Guide and School Security Assessment Tool: Methodology and self-assessment tool for action-oriented physical security practices for K–12 schools
- National Threat Assessment Center: Research on targeted violence and guides for establishing prevention programs
- Science and Technology Directorate: Sound, evidence-based scientific and technical expertise to inform policies and directly address a broad spectrum of current and emerging threats
- Power of Hello Campaign: How to identify suspicious behaviors, when and how to obtain help, and incident response best practices
- De-Escalation Series: How to recognize someone on a path to violence, assess an escalating situation, practice de-escalation techniques, and report information
- Center for Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships: Clearinghouse for information on connecting and coordinating with faith-based organizations
- Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency Physical Security: Free tools, trainings, informational materials, and additional resources for all audiences on active shooter preparedness, bombing prevention, protecting houses of worship, and school safety

Find more resources at CP3 Resource Center

