2017-FEFO-00354	-	Cote, Meggan	Requester seeks information related to the August 2016 flood recovery effort in a National Flood Insurance Program participating community. The community is the City of Central in East Baton Rouge Parrish, LA. The NFIP community number is #220060. I hope to access information collected by the NFIP which may indicate which structures could be considered "substantially damaged". If available It would be extremely helpful to have a list of the following: 1.) The street address of flood damaged properties in NFIP community #220060. 2.) The flood zone of flood damaged properties in NFIP community #220060. 3.) The "Actual Cash Value of the Building or Structure" for these properties as entered in FEMA form 086-0-9 on line 2. 4.) The "Actual Cash Value of Contents" for these properties as entered in FEMA form 086-0-9 on line 2. 5.) The "Full Cost of Repair or Replacement" for these properties as entered in FEMA form 086-0-9 on line 5. 6.) The living square footage of each property. 7.) The total square footage of each property "under the roof". 8.) As a huge bonus if there is any geo-reference data such as a .shp file, a parcel number, or the latitude and longitude that would be very useful.	12/1/2016

2017-FEFO-01362	University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill	Martin, Amanda	I would like some proxy of disaster damage data (e.g. IA registrants, damage estimates, IHP expenditure, even flood extents or wind-waterline GIS data) for historic disasters (whatever is available) at the census tract level or smaller. All non-PII. I found Registration Intake and IHP data by ZIP: https://www.fema.gov/openfema-dataset-registration-intake-and-individuals-household-program-v1 as well as damage estimates by block group for Sandy: https://catalog.data.gov/dataset/sandy-damage-estimates-by-block-group . FEMA has alleged that the property is not primary address. FEMA has requested recoupment. Please respond to the request with this additional information: The address of the damaged property (b)(6) FEMA alleged this address is not primary. Please produce documents and a response demonstrating an alternative primary address for (b)(6) which under FEMA guidelines qualifies as (b)(6) primary residence prior to the disaster. Please produce all documents and a response as to the address FEMA believes is (b)(6) primary address. FEMA also stated that the property is rental property. Please produce all evidence of the persons residing in the damaged property who were renters at the time of the storm. Produce all evidence that the property was occupied by renters which disqualifies (b)(6) from being (b)(6) primary address. include all evidence of rental payments, utility bills in these persons names, drivers license registered at (b)(6) witness statement from public officials that the renter lived at the damaged address. Evidence of homestead exemption, voters registration, tenancy agreement between the renter and (b)(6) and any other documents you hold that evidences the renter was residing in the damaged property and qualified for disaster assistance. In the alternative please respond that you hold no evidence requested in this FOIA. Please produce evidence that these renters met eligibility for FEMA disaster assistance. Please state in your response the names if known or numbers of applicants other than (b)(6) (b)(6) who applied for disaster assistance at (b)(6) Documents included recorded phone calls if any demonstrating that the date the application was made as stated on the application for assistance was NOT September 7, 2008 and this is in fact an error. 2017-FEFO-01698	University Of Chicago	Lee, Seunghoon	? Individual NFIP policies from 1990-2015 with information about 1) policies, 2) location, 3) chosen coverage and premiums, and 4) building characteristics in electronic (preferably .csv or .txt) format. Each item means the following: ? Policies: Policy status (active, canceled, etc.); number of policy terms (number of years the policy is effective: 1 year, 3 years, etc.); whether the policy was required for disaster assistance, and if so, by which agency; company code of the WYO company responsible for the policy (where applicable); whether the policy is for a single-family or multifamily property; and whether it is for a residential or nonresidential property. ? Location: the latitude and longitude coordinates of the property; the property address, city, state, and zip code; the FEMA region; and which Census block (and block group) the property falls within. ? Chosen coverage: insurance deductible and coverage amounts for both the property and the contents are included in the policy database, as are premiums; policy endorsement dates, original effective dates (for rollover policies); current effective dates; and expiration dates ? Building characteristics: when the structure was built; whether the property is in the course of construction, the number of units within the property, the number of floors in the building, the type of basement or enclosure it has (if any), and whether the building is elevated and flood proofed ? If above information cannot be provided, I request the same data as "policy statistics" from the FEMA website (https://bsa.nfipstat.fema.gov/reports/1011.htm#FLT) in electronic format but at Zip code level from 1991-2015. In other words, I want policies-in-force, insurance-in-force, premiums-in-force at Zip code level from 1991-2015.	5/3/2017

2017-FEFO-01779	-	Millar, Fred	all records from FEMA related to the agency's training for chlorine gas and other TIH emergencies, including but not limited to records related to the Jack Rabbit I and II tests and other activities related to TIH emergencies, and 2. including but not limited to FEMA participation in national conference calls and meetings related to the findings and implications of Jack Rabbit testing, draft and final FEMA course outlines and educational materials related to TIH emergencies, and tabletop or field exercises dealing with TIH emergencies. For example, the 2013 NFA report "Jack Rabbit Trials I: Training Value Analysis Meeting" [p. 12 of 37 by ATEC, Inc] reports: "The meeting attendees began working on a draft script for a possible video production on the Jack Rabbit I tests, targeting the information needs of emergency responders. Drafts of this scripting work are available for separate review on request." 3. [See also pp. 25-27] Documents related to the TIH portions of the NFA courses suggested for modification based on the Jack Rabbit research. Our request for "all records" includes, but is not limited to: all written and electronic records such as national and regional offices' correspondence, policy statements and memos, guidance, agency and consultants' reports and studies, field notes from pilot program exercises, inspections or other oversight activities, compliance documents; assessments of effectiveness of the routing rule in protecting cities; and effectiveness of related plans, training and countermeasures. If the documentation is voluminous, which we do not expect, we would be glad to discuss how to narrow our request to make it more manageable. As a longtime and established public interest advocate, I and my allies will be using this information as part of our ongoing work for the public interest and disseminating summaries of it to interested parties including legislators, media, and stakeholders for public discussion and to inform discussions in Congress. We therefore request a waiver of fees, as has previously been granted by many federal agencies for similar requests.	5/12/2017
