2021-HQFO-00001	(b) (6)	“applicant for US Secret Service Special Agent and Uniformed Division Officer positions. On Tues, 9/29, you interviewed for both positions and was notified the following day that you did not receive a passing score on either interview. You previously passed the USSS Special Agent interview in January of this year with similar questions asked and similar responses provided- and went on to receive a conditional job offer that was only rescinded due to your uncorrected vision not meeting the visual acuity requirements. You therefore underwent (b) (6) on (b) (6) and waited the three-month period for your eyes to heal, after which you reapplied for the SA position, along with the UD position. You were initially told on 8/4/20- in the review of my second SA application submitted on 5/7/20- that you did not meet basic qualifications for the position. But after petitioning to HQ and your field office in Philadelphia for one month, your field office intervened, and it was acknowledged that an error had been made in the review of your second application- at which point you were invited to interview for both positions (UD for the first time, SA for the second time). Seeing as an error occurred with the review of my second SA application from 5/7/20 and that errors do occur throughout this process, You are writing to request information regarding my UD and SA interviews and the reasons for your failing scores, as you feel that either an error was made or that you were unfairly scored. You feel that you performed very strongly on both interviews, and- as previously mentioned- You passed the SA interview in the recent past once before with very similar- if not the same- answers provided to the questions asked. Please advise as soon as possible.” (Date Range for Record Search: From 9/28/2020 To 10/1/2020)	10/1/2020
