From what I've seen, this action is centered around the square in front of South Station. There is another event that may include a march from the State House to Post Office Square (Bank of America's office). I'm still getting more on that. I will have something to put out shortly.

MAINE – The Occupy Maine movement includes actions in Augusta, Portland and Bangor. There have been no actions conducted that have impacted Federal facilities. Of note, a "chemical reaction bomb" was tossed into the Portland camp on October 24th. There were no injuries, minor property damage did occur and there have been no arrests made. Since that time, there have been no other attacks or assaults directed at any of the Occupy Maine locations.

VERMONT – The Occupy Maine movement includes actions in Rutland and Burlington. There have been no actions conducted that have impacted Federal facilities.

NEW HAMPSHIRE – The New Hampshire movement is centered at Veterans Park in Manchester, NH. This park is located one block from the Norris Cotton Federal Building. There have been no Occupy New Hampshire events that have impacted Federal facilities.

BOSTON, MA – The Occupy Boston protest continues at their Dewey Square location. This park is located about ¼ mile from the Williams Coast Guard Building and to date has not significantly impacted any Federal facility in the Boston area. On November 1, Occupy Boston marched to the Moakley Federal Courthouse and participated in a peaceful protest with the (b)(6),(b7)(c) support group.

~~PROVIDENCE, R.I.—The city of Providence decided last week to postpone plans to ask a court to evict members of Occupy Providence who have been camping in a downtown park for more than two weeks. The mayor of Providence has stated a permanent encampment is “unsafe and unwise.” The group asked the city to delay legal action until this week and the Mayor gave them until last night to leave. Source: Boston.com~~

~~RIA Note: This park is located directly across the street from the United States District Courthouse and Pastore Federal Building, both are level III facilities. The number of protestors has been estimated at about 100 and there have been no reported arrests from this action. The activists have not departed as directed and it is unclear how the city intends to respond.~~

They are located across the street from the Pastore which is next to the USCH. Burnside Park is the park located next to the bus terminal.

Currently Occupy Providence continues, there are still approx 200 people there day to day with a lot of tents still set up.

The city has asked the protesters to move so that they may do sprinkler maintenance in Burnside Park. The group has agreed but will set up again when the work is complete or will just consolidate in an area of the park not affected by the maintenance.

The large medical and food tents have been taken down but may just be relocated to another part of the park. All of these issues should play out over the course of this week.

Latest report is that the subject had mental health issues and shot himself in his tent. They recovered the firearm at the scene. At this time it appears to be a straight forward suicide attempt. Last word was the subject was critical.

Good Morning RDs / DRDs,

As "Occupy" type protests continue to occur throughout the nation, several law enforcement organizations have undertaken steps to discontinue Occupy encampments within their jurisdictions or are in negotiations with demonstrators to close them down.

As these activities are undertaken by your local law enforcement partners, (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) has requested that Regional Directors continue to assess the potential impact that these events may have at / near federal facilities within the FPS AOR.

Once you have completed your assessment, please provide (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) TMD Director (b)(6),(b7)(c) and I a synopsis of any potential Occupy events or LE activities that may occur this week within your region that may also impact our facilities.

Thank you for your assistance concerning this matter.

(b)(6),(b7)(c)

Occupy Boston is a planned protest action scheduled to occur in the City of Boston's Dewey Sq. on 30 September 2011 at 6:00 PM. No federal properties or the Government Center area have been identified as rally or protests points, as of this morning.

The Occupy Boston action will also coincide with the already planned "Take Back Boston Rally" that will begin at 2:00 PM on Boston Common with a 3:00 PM march to the Bank of America Building in Post Office Square. BPD is expecting approximately 700 people will participate in the Take Back Boston march.

The number of individuals participating in "Occupy Boston" has not been confirmed at this time however the event has generated a significant amount of social media interaction and could attract over 1,000 protestors.

At this time no significant problems are expected other than traffic disruptions.

Let me know if my office can assist with any other information. We will of course advise all the federal offices in the city if any of these activities pose a significant disruption to their buildings or operations.

All,

There are three upcoming events that you should be aware of. The first is the "Occupy Boston" event described in the attached. This is a long term encampment on the Dewey Square (South Station) area of Boston. This begins today at 6pm. The Occupy Boston action will also coincide with the already planned "Take Back Boston Rally" that will begin at 2:00 PM on Boston Common with a 3:00 PM march to the Bank of America Building in Post Office Square and stop at the Hyatt hotel along the way. Approximately 100 people are listed as attending the Take Back Boston Rally on the event's Facebook page and Occupy Boston organizers are encouraging people to attend it as well. The BRIC has received information that approximately 700 people will participate in the Take Back Boston march, with approximately 100 people staying to camp out as part of Occupy Boston.

In addition, there is a nationwide group planning an event called "Chalk the Police Day." Participants are encouraged to visit local police stations or any public area and bring signs, fliers, and write messages in chalk promoting police accountability and bring cameras to film and / or photograph the reactions and encounters with officers. The organizing group, "Cop Block," was founded in New Hampshire and the only listed events are in Keene and Manchester. The attached provides further information.

~~(U//FOUO)~~ Key Findings On Occupy Boston

- ~~(U//FOUO)~~ "Occupy Boston" is a planned protest action scheduled to occur in the City of Boston's Dewey Sq. on 30 September 2011 at 6:00 PM.
- ~~(U//FOUO)~~ The event has generated a significant amount of social media interaction. Approximately 100 people are estimated to initially participate in the encampment.
- ~~(U//FOUO)~~ The presence of a mass gathering in the area of Dewey Sq. has the potential to impact the flow of motor vehicle traffic, impede pedestrian travel and possibly affect commercial and financial sector assets in the area.
- ~~(U//FOUO)~~ There are a wide variety of other demonstrations and events occurring in the City of Boston during the weekend of 30 September 2011 that will have an impact on the Occupy Boston action.
- ~~(U//FOUO)~~ Organizers of Occupy Boston want this to be a peaceful and orderly event; however, it should be noted that they cannot account for the actions of individuals or small groups acting independently of the goals of the Occupy Boston event.
- ~~(U//LES)~~ Organizers of Occupy Boston are highlighting the police actions in NYC and are noting that they represent police misconduct.
- ~~(U//LES)~~ A group called MassCopBlock, a group that aims to expose police misconduct by filming officers, is actively participating in social media discussions about this action. They are encouraging participants to bring cameras and openly film officers during interactions.

Attached is the BRIC update on Occupy Boston. Text as follows. Please note there is another march scheduled for 6pm today with an undisclosed destination.

The Occupy Boston action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

- 1) The size of the camp in Dewey Square has steadily grown over the weekend. The current estimate of individuals camping out in Dewey Square is approximately 100 people; however, numbers in the area fluctuate greatly throughout the day.
- 2) All activities in Dewey Square, as well marches organized by this group have been peaceful and orderly first amendment protected activities. Marches to date have included:
  - a. College Fest at Hynes Convention Center via Downtown Crossing
  - b. Federal Reserve Building
  - c. Downtown Crossing
  - d. Seaport District
- 3) According to the group's website, the schedule for Monday, 3 October 2011 will consist of two marches:
  - a. 8:00AM: March to local media station, very likely to be Fox News Boston on Beacon Hill.
  - b. 6:00 PM: March to unknown location.

As I'm sure you are aware, the planned eviction in Zuccotti Park did not happen this morning. Since tensions however are still high, I think we should still proceed with caution for tomorrow. Again, nothing specific to indicate those coming here plan to be violent or engage in either confrontations with law enforcement or civil disobedience. However, as I said yesterday, NYPD is reporting protesters have been attempting to bait officers into confrontation. Given the highly-charged emotional environment in both the (b)(5) (b)(5) specifically, I think the potential exists for an otherwise routine protest to get out of hand quickly if we are not properly prepared.

Ok...here is where we are...

Protest is scheduled for Saturday 1300-1700 (most likely be around the FOB from 1600-1700.) The facility will be closed but the African Burial Ground will be open until 1600 or 1700....the visitor center in 290 Broadway will be open as well...

We still are not sure where it will be, NYPD has denied the sound permit and we think that it will be on Duane street. It has been kicked back and forth for permitting by the city, GSA and NPS....

Hopefully by tomorrow morning we will have the final details nailed down....we have a meeting at 1030 for log and ops coordination from the fed side...

The arrest and jurisdiction questions still stand...

Have you found anything through research on your end and has GSA gotten back to you on the MOU for the street?

Thanks for your help!

NYPD estimates it should be only 50-100 people. The OWS crowd obviously is saying more than that. Still unclear why they are coming here or what they plan to do when they get here. Based on their activities over the past week, the 50-100 is probably fairly accurate. Marches like this in the past have included either walking around the building with signs and/or laying down in front of the building. We are having a meeting now to decide what actions we're going to take.

Event: Protest

Locations: 26 Federal Plaza, New York, NY

Date: 24 Oct 2011

Event Times: Beginning at 2:00 p.m. End time is unknown

Sponsoring Organization: Occupy Wall Street

Purpose: It is unknown why 26 Federal Plaza is being targeted for this action

Potential for Crowd Violence: This protest is apparently targeted at the federal government. There is no specific indication the protest will be violent or that protestors will attempt to damage federal property.

Anticipated Crowd Size: Estimated 50-100

Remarks: The size of the crowd, their route and method of travel from Zuccotti Park to 26 Federal Plaza is unknown. NYPD has not issued a permit for this event. Anticipated crowd size is based on similar events by this group during the last couple of weeks. The Occupy Wall Street movement has advertised this as “a march on 26 Federal Plaza, the FBI building”. Based on this, it is presumed the federal government is the intended target of this action. NYPD will have officers on hand to monitor the event.

would like to know the following about the OWS incidents last night:

- Is FPS involved in any complaints about police brutality. My initial response was no, that the marches last night were about the incident in Oakland but we need to make sure.

- Was there media coverage of the events last night which may show FPS involvement?

- Was tear gas deployed? OC spray? By whom?

would like to view the CCTV footage from any incidents last night which occurred near our facilities and may have involved our personnel.

- I've been instructed to cruise youtube for the same thing.

From my end sir...

- Is FPS involved in any complaints about police brutality? SA (b)(6) initial response was no, that the marches last night were about the incident in Oakland but we need to make sure.

NO

- Was there media coverage of the events last night which may show FPS involvement?
None we are aware of

- Was tear gas deployed? OC spray? By whom?

No use of force by FPS

Unconfirmed use of tear gas/OC by NYPD (no details of use, it was reported for situational awareness to the PMC for officer safety for on scene units)

(b)(6) would like to view the CCV footage from any incidents last night which occurred near our facilities and may have involved our personnel.

Being compiled (to large to email)

Sir,

Youtube has a lot of videos of the incident last night. Some of those videos show the exterior of the federal buildings but none which I found showed any of our personnel.

Please be advised of the following:

1. FPS was not involved in any known complaints of police brutality.
2. There was some media present last night; however, CCV footage also showed that some members of the crowd were holding lights in a manner that they could have been attached to cameras.
3. Tear gas was not deployed by any member of the Service. No use of force or known contact or hands on involvement by any member of the Service with the OWS protesters.
4. We can send you the CCV footage but is too big a file to be emailed. We reviewed the footage. There was no hands on activity observed by any members of the Service during this incident.

Two (2) NYPD Scooter Patrol Police Officers were knocked down by OWS protestors but NYPD made the arrests with no assistance or participation from FPS.

FPS Sergeant (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) and Inspector (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) responded to the location but formed a line to protect federal personnel and property, and did not get involved in the arrests of OWS protestors who had assaulted the NYPD Officers. Additional members of the Service were also notified and on call to respond to the location including the acting Regional Director (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) District Commander (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) and Area Commander (b)(6), (b)(7)(c)

5. SA (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) please monitor any social media sites to determine if this incident is on youtube, etc.

Don't Be Big Banks' Puppet; No Immunity Deal for Crooks

Posted Nov. 4, 2011, 11:28 a.m. EST by OccupyWallSt

To help expose the looming cash-for-immunity deal between the Obama administration and big banks, there will be a march from Liberty Square to the U.S. Court House Building at Foley Square on November 5th.

The march will gather at 2:00pm on the east side steps at Liberty Square (Zuccotti Park), and will arrive at Foley Square at 3:00pm. Join the Facebook event page

President Obama is on the brink of cutting a backroom deal that would give bankers broad immunity for illegally throwing tens of thousands of Americans out of their homes. The Administration is pressuring state attorneys general to abandon an ongoing investigation into the massive "robo-signing" fraud, in exchange for a relatively small payoff by the banks.

ALCON:

Please be advised that you should prepare for a potential demo at 26 Federal Plaza tomorrow at 1400 hrs. from the Occupy Wall Street (OWS) crowd staged at Zuccotti Park in the confines of the First Precinct.

The FBI New York Field Office's Duty Agent reported to me this evening that the OWS crowd wants to stage at 26 Federal Plaza and that signs are being put up around Lower Manhattan calling for the demo (NFI as to the purpose of this OWS demo).

Any further intel will be passed on to you. If NYPD hears anything regarding this OWS demo, please pass it on to us asap.

Commanders should make sure we have all personnel return from the range tomorrow asap and NJ and Metro East Districts should prepare to have personnel available to deploy at 26 FOB for crowd control.

Thank you.

Sirs,

NYPD has informed the FBI there are signs being placed around Zuccotti Park stating the protesters will be marching to 26 Federal Plaza the FBI building on 10/24/11 at 1400 hours.

I cannot independently verify this and I have no further details at this time. I've reached out to NYPD but have not yet heard back from them. As soon as I hear more I will let you know.

Multiple FPS units were on stand-by with in coordination with NYPD 5th precinct units and barricade emplacement coordinated with GSA. The suspected demonstration never occurred. Details of the pre-event bulletin are as follows: Event: Protest        Locations: 26 Federal Plaza, New York, NY        Date: 24 Oct 2011
-----	-------------------------------	----------	------------	---

				Event Times: Beginning at 2:00 p.m. End time is unknown  Sponsoring Organization: Occupy Wall Street  Purpose: It is unknown why 26 Federal Plaza is being targeted for this action Potential for Crowd Violence: This protest is apparently targeted at the federal government. There is no specific indication the protest will be violent or that protestors will attempt to damage federal property. Anticipated Crowd Size: Estimated 50-100 Remarks: The size of the crowd, their route and method of travel from Zuccotti Park to 26 Federal Plaza is unknown. NYPD has not issued a permit for this event. Anticipated crowd size is based on similar events by this group during the last couple of weeks. The Occupy Wall Street movement has advertised this as "a march on 26 Federal Plaza, the FBI building". Based on this, it is presumed the federal government is the intended target of this action. NYPD will have officers on hand to monitor the event.

When Should You Shoot A Cop?

That question, even without an answer, makes most "law-abiding taxpayers" go into knee-jerk convulsions. The indoctrinated masses all race to see who can be first, and loudest to proclaim that it is NEVER okay to forcibly resist "law enforcement." In doing so, they also inadvertently demonstrate why so much of human history has been plagued by tyranny and oppression.

In an ideal world, cops would do nothing except protect people from thieves and attackers, in which case shooting a cop would never be justified. In the real world, however, far more injustice, violence, torture, theft, and outright murder has been committed IN THE NAME of "law enforcement," than has been committed in spite of it. To get a little perspective, try watching a documentary or two about some of the atrocities committed by the regimes of Stalin, or Lenin, or Chaiman Mao, or Hitler, or Pol Pot, or any number of other tyrants in history. Pause the film when the jackboots are about to herd innocent people into cattle cars, or gun them down as they stand on the edge of a ditch, and THEN ask yourself the question, "When should you shoot a cop?" Keep in mind, the evils of those regimes were committed in the name of "law enforcement." And as much as the statement may make people cringe, the history of the human race would have been a lot LESS gruesome if there had been a lot MORE "cop-killers" around to deal with the state mercenaries of those regimes.

People don't mind when you point out the tyranny that has happened in other countries, but most have a hard time viewing their OWN "country", their OWN "government", and their OWN "law enforcers", in any sort of objective way. Having been trained to feel a blind loyalty to the ruling class of the particular piece of dirt they live on (a.k.a. "patriotism"), and having been trained to believe that obedience is a virtue, the idea of forcibly resisting "law enforcement" is simply unthinkable to many. Literally, they can't even THINK about it. And humanity has suffered horribly because of it. It is a testament to the effectiveness of authoritarian indoctrination that literally billions of people throughout history have begged and screamed and cried in the face of authoritarian injustice and oppression, but only a tiny fraction have ever lifted a finger to actually try to STOP it.

Even when people can recognize tyranny and oppression, they still usually talk about “working within the system”-the same system that is responsible for the tyranny and oppression. People want to believe that “the system” will, sooner or later, provide justice. The last thing they want to consider is that they should “illegally” resist-that if they want to achieve justice, they must become “criminals” and “terrorists,” which is what anyone who resists “legal” justice is automatically labeled. But history shows all too well that those who fight for freedom and justice almost always do so “illegally” – i.e., without the permission of the ruling class.

If politician think that they have the right to impose any “law” they want, and cops have the attitude that, as long as it’s called “law”, they will enforce it, what is there to prevent complete tyranny? Not the consciences of the “law-makers” or their hired thugs, obviously. And not any election or petition to the politicians. When tyrants define what counts as “law”, then by definition it is up to the “law-breakers” to combat tyranny.

Pick any example of abuse of power, whether it is the fascist “war on drugs,” the police thuggery that has become so common, the random stops and searches now routinely carried out in the name of “security” (e.g., at airports, “border checkpoints” that aren’t even at the border, “sobriety checkpoints,” and so on), or anything else. Now ask yourself the uncomfortable question: If it’s wrong for cops to do these things, doesn’t that imply that the people have a right to RESIST such actions? Of course, state mercenaries don’t take kindly to being resisted, even non-violently. If you question their right to detain you, interrogate you, search you, invade your home, and so on, you are very likely to be tasered, physically assaulted, kidnapped, put in a cage, or shot. If a cop decides to treat you like livestock, whether he does it “legally” or not, you will usually have only two options: submit, or kill the cop. You can’t resist a cop “just a little” and get away with it. He will always call in more of his fellow gang members, until you are subdued or dead.

Basic logic dictates that you either have an obligation to LET “law enforcers” have their way with you, or you have the right to STOP them from doing so, which will almost always require killing them. (Politely asking fascists to not be fascists has a very poor track record.) Consider the recent Indiana Supreme Court ruling, which declared that if a cop tries to ILLEGALLY enter your home, it’s against the law for you to do anything to stop him. Aside from the patent absurdity of it, since it amounts to giving thugs with badges PERMISSION to “break the law,” and makes it a CRIME for you to defend yourself against a CRIMINAL (if he has a badge), consider the logical ramifications of that attitude.

Stay safe,

Another uneventful visit to INHP this weekend. However, per PPD (Capt (b)(6),(b7)(c)): the group is becoming more assertive and not following law enforcement directions as before (for instance, group did not follow the agreed route/march down to the park and kept zigzagging up and down different streets). There may also be construction slated for site where group is currently located.

Good Morning RDs / DRDs,

As "Occupy" type protests continue to occur throughout the nation, several law enforcement organizations have undertaken steps to discontinue Occupy encampments within their jurisdictions or are in negotiations with demonstrators to close them down.

As these activities are undertaken by your local law enforcement partners (b)(6), (b)(7)c has requested that Regional Directors continue to assess the potential impact that these events may have at / near federal facilities within the FPS AOR.

Once you have completed your assessment, please provide (b)(6), (b)(7)c TMD Director (b)(6),(b7)(c) and I a synopsis of any potential Occupy events or LE activities that may occur this week within your region that may also impact our facilities.

Thank you for your assistance concerning this matter.

It was reported that there were about 50 of them in Tampa yesterday (Monday) but none were in the area of the FB's or USCH. They were reported in the downtown area about 6 -7 blocks from the FB's or USCH. I was in the office working yesterday from about 0800 - 1500 and did not see or hear anything. The PSO's said they did not see anything yesterday either. So far, any activity in the Tampa area has been all peaceful.

On October 6, 2011 at approximately 3:20 PM a demonstration took place at the Sam Gibbons USCH in Tampa, FL. The primary demonstrating group was Occupy Tampa, but they were supported by smaller splinter groups such as Anonymous, St. Pete. for Peace, and another unnamed group from New Port Richey, FL. The demonstration started off with approximately 300 participants but grew to an estimated 1,000 according to Tampa PD estimates. A few participants had masks that covered their faces. Bull horns, chants, and drums were used to communicate a variety of messages regarding anti-Wall Street, anti-big banks, anti-war, and anti-government. Prior to the demonstration taking place at the USCH, the demonstrators had been demonstrating and meeting in front of the Tampa Police Department HQ's since 8:00 AM that same morning. The Federal Protective Service had nine uniformed LEO's and two Special Agents. FPS was supported by the Tampa Police Department and the U.S. Marshal's Service. The demonstrations and marches concluded at approximate 6:30 PM. All demonstrators and activities were peaceful with no damage to property reported.

2011-10-08 22:41:24.717

On 10-8-11 at approx 2158 hrs, I received a call from the Asheville Police Department stating that demonstrators were starting to gather at the corner of Patton Avenue and Otis Street. I went to the corner of Patton and Otis and witnessed 16 - 20 demonstrators laying cardboard on the sidewalk. The group identified themselves as "Occupy Asheville" They stated that they would not destroy or vandalize anything on federal property and that their intentions were to come out on the sidewalk in front of the federal building. At approx 2220 hrs, I called the FPS BMC and spoke with (b)(6),(b7)(c). After explaining the situation (b)(6),(b7)(c) stated that he would call the Asheville PD and advise that as long as the demonstrators were on City property there were no concerns. I then contacted the assistant contract manager at about 2225 hrs (b)(6),(b7)(c) from the FPS BMC called me back at approx 2245 hrs and advised that the case number was B11012789 and the incident code was 1910. End of statement.

SPECIAL COVERAGE: Occupy Wall Street

October 2011

Mass gatherings associated with public protest movements can have disruptive effects on transportation, commercial, and government services, especially when staged in major metropolitan areas. Large scale demonstrations also carry the potential for violence, presenting a significant challenge for law enforcement.

Background

The Occupy Wall Street (OWS) movement is a loose coalition of ongoing peaceful protests taking place in cities across the United States. The OWS movement began with demonstrations staged in New York City’s financial district, where protesters have taken up residence since September 17. The protests focus primarily on issues of economic justice, including corruption in the financial system, the government’s handling of the global financial crisis, wealth disparity, and the role of corporate money in the U.S. political system. As a self-identified “leaderless resistance movement,” OWS lacks an official set of demands and has co-opted support from participants seeking to bring attention to a wide range of social, economic, political, and environmental issues. The movement has drawn inspiration from recent protests in Europe and the Middle East, specifically citing “the Egyptian Tahrir Square uprising” and recent demonstrations in Spain. The first day of the protest drew approximately 1,000 protesters to Wall Street and the movement has grown considerably since, with an encampment of protesters occupying nearby Zucotti Square in Lower Manhattan. The OWS protests continued to gain momentum in the following weeks, sparking smaller demonstrations in major cities nationwide. Although the protests have been mostly peaceful, hundreds of arrests have been made by local police forces, mostly for trespassing, disorderly conduct, and obstructing traffic.

Sector-Specific Impacts

Financial Services

The financial services sector has served as the focal point of the OWS movement, with protesters holding protests and camping out in the financial districts of cities such as Boston, New York, Chicago, and San Francisco.

- Protesters have staged numerous marches and rallies on Wall Street and the areas surrounding the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE). Commercial Facilities

Movement organizers have used public parks and plazas, as well as private property, as areas of public assembly for OWS-linked protests. In many cases, these protests have been staged without permits, leading to arrests. These large gatherings have had a major impact on surrounding business and retail districts. In some cases, commercial facilities have been targeted directly by OWS demonstrations.

- On October 10, Seattle Police urged protesters to relocate from Westlake Park, located in the center of the city's downtown shopping district, to a location near city hall. (Source: New York Times)

Transportation

Taking place primarily in downtown areas, the OWS demonstrations have had a significant impact on transportation, causing widespread traffic jams, road closures, and suspension of public transit.

- On September 30, New York Police arrested 700 protesters for blocking the roadway during a march across the Brooklyn Bridge. (Source: Huffington Post)

Portland, Oregon:

- On October 6, a gathering of 10,000 protesters caused TriMet, the public agency in charge of mass transit in Portland, to temporarily suspend service and forced police to block-off several roadways. (Source: Portland Oregonian)

Emergency Services

The OWS protests have placed a considerable burden on emergency services personnel to control crowds, protect critical infrastructure, and maintain public order. Although there have been hundreds of arrests made, most have been for minor offenses and confrontations between police and protesters have been rare. Police departments have sought to minimize these types of incidents, enhance security, and heighten awareness through public-private information sharing.

New York:

- The extra manpower needed to police the protests are also placing a financial burden on emergency services, costing the New York Police Department (NYPD) $1.9 million mostly in overtime as of October 10. (Source: MSNBC)
- The NYPD has kept banks in the loop about protester activity by sending out email blasts to its Lower Manhattan Security Initiative and Midtown Manhattan Security Initiative. The emails tell landlords and occupants in those areas, including large banks, where protesters are headed and whether there are any unusual risks. (Source: Reuters)

A distinct feature of OWS is how it was born from online organization and continues to use social media to spread its message, organize further protests, and keep protesters connected. OWS and the broader Occupy Together movement that organizes protests in other cities use services such as Twitter, Tumblr, Meetup, and Facebook to this end, as well as having set up a live video feed of the OWS encampment in New York. Announcements, videos, and images are all collected and disseminated via these social networks as well as on the OWS Web site.

- On September 24 and October 5, NYPD officers resorted to pepper spray to subdue protesters. The September 24 incident is under investigation. (Source: DNAinfo.com)

Government Facilities

OWS-inspired protests have also impacted government facilities, with protests staged at city halls and courthouses in cities such as Los Angeles, Portland, and Chicago, and marches staged in Washington, D.C.

- On October 6, members from the Occupy D.C. movement marched near the White House and protested at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. (Source: Washington Examiner)

Sector Impacts-Financial Services-Commercial Facilities-Transportation-Emergency Services-Government FacilitiesFeature: Social Media and IT*SummarySummary

Since the initial September 17 protest which drew 1,000 participants to Wall Street, OWS-inspired groups have staged protests in upwards of 70 cities across the United States, including most major metropolitan areas. The largest gathering to date came on October 5, when an estimated 15,000 protesters marched on Wall Street and the NYSE. In addition, Occupytogether.org, an OWS-affiliated Web site, lists over 1,500 geographically unique online communities in 25 countries seeking to participate in the demonstrations. As the movement has spread, it has garnered increased media attention, significantly expanded its demographic base, and co-opted support from labor unions, social action groups, and the “hacktivist” collective, Anonymous, among others.

Social media and the organic emergence of online communities have driven the rapid expansion of the OWS movement. In New York, OWS leaders have also formed ad hoc committees to organize protesters and manage communications, logistics, and security. The OWS encampment in Zucotti Park features a medical station, distribution point for food and water, and a media center complete with generators and wireless Internet. Organizers hold general assembly meetings twice a day and have established committees and working groups including an Internet Working Group and a Direct Action Committee, which plans protest activities and works to maintain peaceful and controlled demonstrations. This high level of organization has allowed OWS to sustain its operations, disseminate its message, and garner increasing levels of support.

The growing support for the OWS movement has expanded the protests’ impact and increased the potential for violence. While the peaceful nature of the protests has served so far to mitigate their impact, larger numbers and support from groups such as Anonymous substantially increase the risk for potential incidents and enhance the potential security risk to critical infrastructure (CI). The continued expansion of these protests also places an increasingly heavy burden on law enforcement and movement organizers to control protesters. As the primary target of the demonstrations, financial services stands the sector most impacted by the OWS protests. Due to the location of the protests in major metropolitan areas, heightened and continuous situational awareness for security personnel across all CI sectors is encouraged.

Occupy Chicago Protest Continues Despite Arrests

The Occupy Chicago protests continued into Monday after 175 protesters were arrested early Sunday morning in Grant Park. Marching to their own beat, Occupy Chicago's protesters held posters Sunday that painted a picture of a movement that wants jobs and doesn't want tax cuts for the rich. After the weekend protests, police officials say they used Saturday's Occupy Chicago protest as a training session for two upcoming international summits. According to the Chicago Tribune, police were in constant contact with protest organizers during Saturday night's arrest of 175 demonstrators. They were working on dealing with protests without it reaching violence. Sunday's crowd was smaller than the 2,000 who marched to Grant Park Saturday night. The protesters were younger and the message was diverse. The Occupy Chicago movement crossed socioeconomic and racial barriers and attracted all ages. Several protesters that were arrested on Saturday, 15 October 2011, held up signs saying "arrested last night...but still here." The Occupy Chicago website said its mission is to "fight corporate abuse of American democracy in solidarity with brothers and sisters around the world." One organizer said "the group plans to take over a park in the city within the next two weeks." Source: FOX Chicago News / Chicago Sun-Times News

8:36 a.m. CDT, October 16, 2011

Chicago police arrested about 175 Occupy Chicago protesters in Congress Plaza just after 1 a.m. Sunday, about 90 minutes after police issued their first warning that the group was violating municipal code.

Police completed the last arrests and cleared the plaza of protesters at 3:30 am, more than two hours after arrests began.

The protesters will likely be cited with municipal violations and face fines, police said.

Occupy Chicago volunteers said they were taking bags and other belongings from people who were arrested to Grace Episcopal Church for people to pick up once they were released from jail.

With the din from supporters from across the street long since faded away, the participants were taken away in police trucks and CTA buses, often cheering.

"I did it!" one woman said, beaming. "Did you see what I did?"

Officers individually approached protesters, who had formed a human chain and sat on the ground, to give them the option to leave the park voluntarily or be arrested.

As of 1:30 a.m., at least 50 protesters had been hauled away, while about 150 others stood and continued their demonstrations from across the street on Michigan Avenue.

The arrests were mostly peaceful, though many people shouted that the police "were the instruments of the one percent," referring to the movement's popular refrain.

One person chose to leave rather than be arrested while two men were seen refusing to stand and had to be carried away by several officers.

Many chanted "The whole world is watching," echoing chants during protests at the 1968 Democratic Convention in Chicago, some of which took place in and around Grant Park.

About 500 or so protestors -- down from 2,000 earlier in the day -- had pitched tents early in the evening. Police warned them at 11:30 p.m. Saturday they were violating a municipal ordinance which closes the park at 11 p.m.

As the arrests continued, other officers dismantled the two dozen tents and threw away some of the signs.

"I'd like to ask why (New York Mayor Michael) Bloomberg let the people stay in the park peacefully and clean up their own mess, and Rahm Emanuel won't let us do the same," said Joseph Eichler, 23, of Logan Square.

When a group of protesters sat defiantly in their tent and refused to leave, the officers dismantled the tent with the people still in it.

"I'm going down with the ship!" one man shouted, right before the group was arrested.

After police cleared most of the plaza, a group of about 60 protesters remained around 2 a.m., huddled together, shouting over the repeated warnings that they would be arrested if they didn't leave.

"It's our duty to defend our rights, our right to peacefully assemble," said Brit Schulte, 23, of Uptown. "This is our park, and they're trying to take it away from us. We shouldn't be arrested right now."

Participants, expecting to be arrested, pledged to return to the plaza Sunday.

As arrests resumed, people chanted, "Shame on Rahm! Shame on Rahm!"

Sat. OCT. 15, 2011

NOON Rally at Wall Street & Broadway- In front of Chase Bank March to Occupy Wall Street Encampment Liberty & Broadway

Oct. 15 is a day of nationally coordinated antiwar actions in cities across the U.S., the 10th anniversary of the massively destructive and criminal U.S. war on Afghanistan.

When the U.S. government began its attack on Afghanistan 10 years ago, President Bush called it a "war on terror." It was followed by 8 years of U.S. war Iraq and now war in Libya and drone wars on Pakistan, Yemen, Somalia and Sudan under Pres. Obama. These are all wars for oil, resources and markets in the interests of corporate power. At the same time, the U.S. government is carrying out attacks on working people within the U.S., cutting back on health care and education while bailing out the Wall St. banks and insurance companies. Every time people call for money for social services, we are told there is no money, but the government always finds money for its wars. It is increasing repression on Muslims, on Black and Latino youth and on those who protest, as the FBI raids on anti-war demonstrators and the NYPD attacks on the peaceful Occupy Wall St. demonstrators show.

Join us in a march to demand an end to U.S. wars in Afghanistan & Iraq, an end to U.S. aid to Israel, and an end to U.S. bombing and destruction in Libya and an end to the growing repression at home.

We NEED Jobs, Health Care & Education NOT War, Racism & Repression

Subject: RE: MI SAB-46-2011, Occupy Michigan Protests

Here is some information so far all that were in September have been peaceful with arrests but peaceful arrests, however the wallstreet occupation is still going on for the past 13 days and it appears that other cities are catching onto it and performing the same thing peaceful demonstrations so far, with them saying they will go on until the government puts things right.. Most of these occur at Federal Reserve Banks so if they are close to Federal property you will get some overflow traffic of protestors carrying signs, American flags and passing out literature but thus far all have been peaceful.

Occupy Wall Street has gained interest and spawned a larger national movement, including an effort called "Occupy Michigan in Lansing and Detroit," which boasts its own Facebook event page.

William Borch, the upstate business manager for the Ironworkers Local 25 in Zilwaukee, said he's been following the events on Wall Street closely.

"I think they're trying to make the public aware of some of the things... the financial industry has done in this country.. that put the whole economy in jeopardy and I think some of these events are locally catching on," he said.

Borch, an advocate for union rights, said he's unsure if the Saginaw County organization would mobilize residents to participate in Occupy Lansing or Occupy Detroit events.

"We're always looking at rallying for peoples rights or workers rights, but I think overall we're taking a little different direction and trying to work with the legislators that will work with us and making their constituent aware of what's going on," Borch said.

Scheduled to take place on Oct. 15 until Oct. 17 in Lansing, the Facebook page urges a "peaceful occupation" in Lansing and presents an "Occupy Michigan mission statement."

The page seems to target the current Republican leaders, including Governor Rick Snyder, claiming there has been "overt action to subvert our democracy and our system of representative government," that new legislation infringes on teachers' rights, there have been "attempts to punish poor people and the unemployed simply for being poor and unemployed."

The Facebook page also demands: "Out with emergency financial managers."

Due to laws that forbid overnight camping at the Capitol in Lansing, the Occupy Lansing Facebook page states: "If we are to occupy, and stay overnight then this would be an act of civil disobedience. Civil disobedience is when you are peacefully breaking the rules, and can be subject to arrest. If people are serious about this, then you must open yourself up to possibly being arrested and going to jail."

Several websites related to the Occupy Wall Street protest indicate the movement is an outcry by the "99 percent" — the common civilian — against the 1 percent — large financial institutions and governments — that they allege ignore the majority and trample their rights.

Occupy Detroit today at corner of Woodward and Jefferson

People are starting to assemble in front of the Spirit of Detroit statue at the corner of Woodward and Jefferson. You may want to remind your staff to avoid that intersection if possible on their way home.

The announced plan was for protesters to gather at the statue at 4:00 pm and march north to Grand Circus Park. Woodward avenue should be congested so an alternate route should be taken out of downtown today.

SUMMARY

In September 2011, numerous individuals began an event known as Occupy Wall Street. This event is a leaderless resistance movement involving individuals who claim they are the 99% who will no longer tolerate the greed and corruption of the 1%. They feel the citizens need to play a role in the solution and can no longer afford to let "corporate greed and corrupt politics set the policies for our nation." In solidarity, other events in numerous cities across the U.S. have been scheduled.

Below is a list of the Michigan protest locations.

Occupy Detroit 10/21/2011, 12 p.m. – 3 p.m. Roosevelt Park at the Train Station, Vernor Highway

Occupy Detroit 10/21/2011, 1 p.m. Hart Plaza * SEE "OTHER INFO" BELOW

Occupy Lansing 10/15/2011, 10 a.m. – 10/17/2011, 12 p.m. Capitol Steps * SEE OTHER INFO BELOW

Occupy Flint Proposed 10/1/2011, 12 p.m. Flint City Hall * SEE OTHER INFO BELOW

Occupy Ann Arbor To Be Determined Federal Building proposed * SEE OTHER INFO BELOW

OTHER INFORMATION

Several Michigan-based social network sites have been created to organize the protest information. Occupy Detroit shows over

400 individuals attending and Occupy Lansing reflects over 300 attending. On the Occupy Detroit page, one individual proposed the group do "flash protests" at various locations in and around Detroit. According to open source monitoring, no specific threats have been identified. Those posting comments to the sites acknowledge the locations they have proposed for protesting which may result in their arrest for trespassing. The MIOC will continue monitoring these events for threat information. Information cannot be collected or maintained solely on First Amendment protected activities or on the basis of any racial, ethnic, religious, political or other profile.

Event:

From the organizer’s website: “On September 17, 2011, people from all across the United States of America and the world came to protest the blatant injustices of our times perpetuated by the economic and political elites. On the 17th we as individuals of this great nation rose up against political disenfranchisement and social and economic injustice. We spoke out, resisted, and successfully occupied Wall Street. Today, we proudly remain in Liberty Square, constituting ourselves as autonomous political beings engaged in non-violent civil disobedience and building solidarity based on mutual respect, acceptance, and love. It is from these reclaimed grounds that we say to all Americans and to the world, Enough! How many crises does it take? We are the 99% and we have moved to reclaim our mortgage future.

“Through a direct democratic process, we have come together as individuals and crafted these principles of solidarity, which are points of unity that include but are not limited to:

1. Engaging in direct and transparent participatory democracy;
2. Exercising personal and collective responsibility;
3. Recognizing individuals’ inherent privilege and the influence it has on all interactions;
4. Empowering one another against all forms of oppression;
5. Redefining how labor is valued;
6. The sanctity of individual privacy;
7. The belief that education is human right; and
8. Endeavoring to practice and support wide application of open source.

“We are daring to imagine a new socio-political and economic alternative that offers greater possibility of equality. We are consolidating the other proposed principles of solidarity, after which demands will follow.”<sup>1</sup>

Day of Action for the 99%

Kalamazoo, MI

November 17, 2011 04:30PM to 06:00PM

Event Description:

After votes by Congress to block the President's jobs plan, and on the eve of the Super Committee's recommendations to enact more job-killing budget cuts, Kalamazoo community members will declare an "Economic Emergency for the 99%" on Thursday, November 17 and march across the I-94 Business Loop/ E. Michigan Avenue Bridge, calling on Congress to create jobs, stop cuts, and make Wall Street banks pay.

The demonstration is part of a national day of protests at decaying bridges on November 17 against policies that have enriched the 1% and impoverished the 99%. People nationwide will gather at structurally unsound bridges and other sites in need of repair to demand that America be put back to work now. Protestors will call on Congress to create jobs, stop cuts, and make Wall Street banks pay.

Three years after Wall Street wrecked our economy, 25 million people are still unable to find full-time work and the gap between the 1% and the 99% continues to grow. But instead of creating jobs, Congress continues to ignore the concerns of the 99%, and focuses on job-killing budget cuts and tax giveaways for the rich.

Join us Tuesday, November 8th in The People's Plaza (Hennepin County Government Center, 300 S 6th St. Minneapolis, MN) at 3:00pm as we rally and carpool together to defend the home of a family currently facing foreclosure and demand the bank renegotiate their mortgage to keep the family in their home.

3:00pm – Rally at the plaza and carpool

4:15pm – Set up tents and banners at the home (33rd and 6th St N, Minneapolis)

5:00pm – Rally at the home (33rd and 6th St N, Minneapolis)

7:00pm – General assembly to discuss strategy for organizing around and defending foreclosed homes

Bring your tents, sleeping bags, signs and banners to redecorate the yard! The owner has invited us to spend the night and to maintain an ongoing presence at her home.

More details to come, but for now we are maintaining the element of surprise for the action to prevent the bank from trying to evict the family before we mobilize to defend them.

We will release the address of the home the day of the occupation for people who want to meet us at the home.

We've shown that when we stand together we can fight and we can win.

We are the 99%.

The Occupy Movement...

The “Occupy Movement” began with a demonstration that took place in Manhattan’s Liberty Square (Financial District) on September 17, 2011. This demonstration was named “Occupy Wall Street” (OWS) and since then, the “Occupy Movement” generated steam and began creating spin-off demonstrations within various cities throughout the world. According to the OWS website, their goal is “...fighting back against the corrosive power of major banks and multinational corporations over the democratic process, and the role of Wall Street in creating an economic collapse that has caused the greatest recession in generations. The movement is inspired by popular uprisings in Egypt and Tunisia, and aims to expose how the richest 1% of people are writing the rules of an unfair global economy that is foreclosing on our future.”<sup>1</sup>

Their slogan is “We are the 99%”. This is in relation to the above quote, where they state that the richest 1% of the population are the ones responsible for creating a unfair global economy which restrains the remaining 99% from being able to achieve certain economic opportunities. They state that they will “No longer tolerate the greed and corruption of the 1%.”<sup>2</sup>

(b)(5)

Throughout the country, the majority of these demonstrations have been conducted peacefully without arrests. However, some demonstrations have led to arrests for non-violent civil disobedience and other crimes. On Tuesday October 25, Oakland (CA) police deployed tear gas and rubber bullets in an effort to disperse a group of protestors. This resulted in numerous injured protestors and minor property damage caused by protestors in response.

Region 5 Implications...

In all six Region 5 states, there have been no arrests of individuals who are associated with the Occupy Movement by FPS law enforcement personnel. Most demonstrations, occurring in these states, have been conducted peacefully and off of federal property.

The largest Occupy action currently taking place in Region 5 is located in Chicago, IL. It is being held at the Federal Reserve Bank building at Jackson & LaSalle. This demonstration has been conducted peacefully and usually includes marches up and down Chicago streets. Occasionally, these demonstrators cross onto federal property at 77 West Jackson and 203 S. Dearborn St. There have not been any reports of criminal activity on these federal properties associated with the Occupy Movement.

Analysis...

At this time there is no known credible threat to federal facilities by individuals linked to the Occupy Movement. Most demonstrations are taking place off of federal facilities. The most likely encounter that demonstrators will have with federal property is when they are marching from one place to another.

Due to the popularity of the Occupy Movement, I assess that these demonstrations will continue to occur for the foreseeable future.

~~NO PUBLIC OR MEDIA DISSEMINATION~~

~~(U//LES)~~ “Occupy KC / Occupy Wall Street” Protests

~~(U//FOUO)~~ Region 6 (R6) Threat Management Branch has prepared the following Bulletin for informational purposes regarding a protest titled “Occupy KC” in the Kansas City area. This group has been protesting against “Big Banks” and “Wall Street” since the middle of September, 2011 at 1 Memorial Drive, Kansas City, MO, the Federal Reserve Bank. Beginning on October 9, 2011, this group will move their protest activities to Ilus W. Davis Park in downtown Kansas City, in close proximity to several FPS guarded facilities.

~~(U//LES)~~ GEOGRAPHIC AREAS OF CONSIDERATION:

Region 6 Area of Operations – Kansas City, MO specifically:

- 901 Locust Street, Department of Transportation (Level IV Facility)
- 601 E 12th Street, Richard Bolling Federal Building (Level IV Facility)
- 400 E 9th Street, Charles Evans Whittaker Federal Courthouse (Level IV Facility)

~~(U//LES)~~ DETAILS:

~~(U//LES)~~ This information bulletin is being released to raise law enforcement’s awareness regarding a planned demonstration by supporters and members of “Occupy KC” group at the Ilus W. Davis Park in downtown Kansas City beginning on October 9, 2011.

~~(U//LES)~~ The Federal Protective Service recognizes the proposed activity falls under the protected categories of free speech and assembly under the First Amendment of the Constitution. The “Occupy Wall Street” phenomenon began September 17th, 2011 in New York City as a protest against Wall Street Financial Institutions and have since spread to many cities including Washington, Los Angeles, Boston, Chicago, Philadelphia, Miami, Portland, Maine, Portland, Oregon, Seattle, Denver, and now Kansas City.

~~(U//LES)~~ The “Occupy KC” Protests also began in mid-September at the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City. Open Source Intelligence has revealed the group plans to move their protest activities to a park in the downtown area beginning 10/9/2011.

Do not arrest or detain based solely on this information.

Source: OPEN SOURCE / Kansas City Fusion Center (KCTEW) / FACEBOOK

(U//LES) ANALYSIS:

~~(U//LES)~~ The protesters plan to move their protest activities from the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City to City Hall in the area of Ilus W. Davis Park in the downtown Kansas City area. This park is directly adjacent to the Charles Evan Whittaker Federal Courthouse, 901 Locust Street Department of Transportation (DOT), and 601 E 12th Street Richard Bolling Federal Building. These are all level 4 FPS facilities.

~~(U//LES)~~ While the protests are aimed largely at banking and financial institutions, the fact that these have been constant and ongoing protests, lasting for weeks instead of hours, present unique issues for law enforcement and the security of these facilities.

~~(U//LES)~~ Kansas City Police arrested one individual at the protest location at the Federal Reserve Bank, however, the protests have been overwhelmingly peaceful and compliant with law enforcement. Other cities experiencing the "Occupy Wall Street" protests have seen much larger numbers in overall terms of protesters and arrests.

~~(U//LES)~~ While the planned move does occur on a Sunday followed by a federal holiday on Monday (Columbus Day), the protests could still be occurring when employees return to work on Tuesday morning. Additionally, the DOT facility at 901 Locust Street has 24 hour operations.

~~(U//FOUO)~~ FORCE PROTECTION MEASURES:

- Based on the information provided, no Region 6 facilities have been mentioned as specific target locations for this demonstration / protest, however, the presence of protesters in such close proximity to FPS facilities for an extended period of time potentially warrants additional scrutiny.

We had a sizeable protest yesterday here at a public park in front of the federal courthouse and a few more FPS buildings. It was a peaceful protest, but there were 5-6 "anarchist-type" people there with the bandanas covering their faces, gas masks, etc.

Did you want this in the DIB today?

Also, what training did you say was coming up in December in DC?

I was off last week and I am told we had some company at Ilus Davis Park on Sunday. My co-workers are telling me there was about 150-200 people at the Occupy KC event with a handful of anarchists in gas masks, etc.

Does anyone have a quick summary of the event and if they are planning any more in the near term?

Time: October 24th at approximately 1:15. Situation: This man came to Centennial Mall, where Occupy Lincoln, Nebraska has been protesting since October 15th, and admitted to burning a United States flag that belonged to a Occupy Lincoln, Nebraska protester a few days earlier. He clearly states he knows what he did was wrong and that he is aware that his actions violate the law. This man had hair down to his shoulders only a couple days earlier. In the video he states he burned the flag and he shaved off all his hair as penance. I called the police. The truly disturbing part is that about 10 minutes after this video was shot, while a group of 20 occupiers calmly waited for the police who took nearly 20 minutes to respond, this man said "I'm going to burn these tents to the ground" and proceeded to leave. When the police arrived I stressed my concern with regards to how long it took for them to come. I went on to state that Occupy Lincoln, Nebraska has complied, IMMEDIATELY, with EVERY request by law enforcement and has stayed within the legal guidelines of state and local laws, and we deserve protection against violence, harassment, and threats as we peacefully and respectfully exercise our right to protest against economic inequality. He said, "We aren't going to put a cop out here 24/7 to protect you guys." I said, "I know that, don't be absurd, we're only asking for a faster response, what if he would have been here with a knife instead of insulting us with just his words?" He responded, "I don't know." That is exactly why I'm posting this video. This man needs HELP because he poses a significant risk to society. He doesn't need to be in prison. People with obvious mental illness need to be listened to and given adequate mental health treatment and not locked in a cage where he will sit to further devolve into delusion!

UPDATE: 20 minutes after the police left, this man returned. We called the police immediately. He left and was followed by a Occupy Lincoln, Nebraska protester. After witnessing the man tag, "Y because I forgave my destroyers I forgive you" on the United States Federal building located in Downtown Lincoln the protester called the police and the man was subsequently arrested.

Narrative Continuation

2011-10-30 21:00:46.81

On 10/30/11, at 1417 hours, Area Commander (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) dispatched me to the downtown government district of Kansas City, MO due to an "Occupy Kansas City" demonstration at the Ilus W. Davis Municipal Park.

The Kansas City, MO police dispatcher had advised the Battle Creek Megacenter dispatcher than numerous protestors were allegedly standing on the Federal courthouse property prior to our being called out.

That information was later verified by interfacing with the Kansas City MO police upon my arrival at the courthouse.

I was also able to estimate that there were approximately 300 peaceful demonstrators at the park when I arrived.

The Ilus W. Davis Municipal Park is bordered to the north by the Whittaker United States Courthouse (400 E 9th Street) and bordered on the east by the United States Department of Transportation (DOT) Regional Headquarters (901 Locust Street).

Inspectors (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) were also dispatched to this location.

I arrived at 300 E 9th Street at 1459 hours, and the other Inspectors arrived within minutes of me.

Inspector (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) entered the DOT facility and performed surveillance with his binoculars from the roof top of the facility - overlooking the park for approximately one hour.

The security cameras from the DOT facility's west side were also able to survey the park.

(b)(6), (b)(7)(c) and I performed several exterior patrols of both the Whittaker Courthouse and the DOT facility and (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) performed an exterior vehicle patrol of the Bolling FOB located two blocks south-east of the Davis Park at 601 E 12 Street.

At 1550 hours, approximately 250 (of the estimated 300) protestors departed the area in an organized marching formation and walked north on Locust Street for approximately three to four blocks and then marched east on Admiral Blvd.

Approximately 50 protestors remained behind at the park.

At approximately 1800 hours, approximately 150 (or the previous 250) protestors were observed marching west bound on E 9th Street - approaching the Ilus W Davis Park from the east.

We observed the protestors dancing to music and applauding speakers at the park.

We observed numerous persons with video cameras and cell phone cameras.

Numerous persons took video and still photographs of us and of our FPS vehicles as they were parked in front of the Whittaker Courthouse.

We observed no fewer than five protestors wearing gas masks and at least three protestors wearing bandanas across their faces "bandit" style.

Many people waved at us and no one caused any trouble with us.

At 1935 hours, the number of protestors had dwindled to approximately 30 persons and we performed one more exterior patrol at 300 E 9th Street and more at 901 Locust Street and terminated our involvement in this event.

(b)(6), (b)(7)(c) and I met with the Chief of Police of the Mint and DPD this morning (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) respectfully, to discuss the plans and operations for the "Occupy the Mint" protest potentially scheduled for 7 days, 11 – 18 Nov. Also attending the meeting was their deputies- from the Mint (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) and from DPD (b)(6), (b)(7)(c). The Mint is requesting our assistance in augmenting them with (2) 303 gunners and any supervisory oversight or assistants we deem necessary to in support of the gunners, and they are making arrangements to pick up paying any overtime hours for our personnel. I am not sure how to make that happen and will get with (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) on that. From the discussions this morning the protest is scheduled to begin on midnight 11 Nov., however they are not yet sure if that means 10 Nov. and roll over to 11 Nov. OR 11 Nov. and rollover into 12 Nov. The good thing is they will be closed from 11 Nov. ( holiday- until Monday 14 Nov.) so they may only need us for either Thursday 10 Nov. AND Monday 14 Nov. They are still in the planning phases and will keep us posted as the situation develops.

(b)(6), (b)(7)(c) will be coordinating with (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) getting people 303 trained for the potential of your approval of us supporting their request.

The MINT will be having 30 -40 MINT personnel fly in from outside to support them, and training will be on 7 – 9 NOV. (more to follow as it develops)

Open source media reports that the organization Occupy Montana, <http://occupybillingsmt.org/> will hold a rally titled "Occupy Billings Protest" on October 28, 2011, from 9:30 PM -12:00 AM, at the Yellowstone County Courthouse located at 217 North 27th Street in Billings, MT. This location is located adjacent to the Federal Protective Service protected properties of the James F. Battin Federal Courthouse located at 316 N. 26th St. in Billings, MT and the new U.S. Courthouse currently under construction.

Occupy Montana has announced their activities on the organization "Occupy Together" <http://www.occupytogether.org/> website which serves as a repository for like events taking place worldwide.

11/16/2011

Local news affiliates report that Occupy Montana has announced their planned activities at local establishments in the Billings, MT area. <http://www.kulr8.com/news/local/Occupy-Montana-Group-Meets-131308429.html>. Occupy Montana has used various social media outlets listed below and pamphlets (see photo at right) to announce upcoming events.

(b)(7)e, (b)(7)f

Occupy Montana relays their mission statement as:

"As we gather together in solidarity to express a feeling of mass injustice we must not lose sight of what brought us together. We write so that all people who feel wronged by the corporate forces of the world can know that we are your allies. As one people, united, we acknowledge the reality that the future of the human race requires the cooperation of its members. That our system must protect our rights, and upon corruption of that system, it is up to the individuals to protect their own rights, and those of their neighbors."

Occupy Montana via their website asks that all participants adhere to their code of conduct which reads:

- 1.) We will use no violence, physical or verbal, towards any person
- 2.) We will carry no weapons
- 3.) We will not bring or use any alcohol or illegal drugs
- 4.) We will not destroy property

Occupy Montana attendance for announced activities is unknown at this time but, per their webpage, may be posted after October 21, 2011.

Potential criminal activity of attendees is also unknown at this time.

Attached is the ~~(U//LES)~~ Yellowstone document noting a brief history of the "Occupy" movement and local information. Please take care not to forward the attachment to those not authorized to receive it.

After this weekend I anticipate Occupy Montana posting additional information regarding their upcoming activities near FPS protected properties.

Yes, we received info of the one on Nov 5th yesterday afternoon and have been working with our intel folks to get more info. We do contact info for the Yellowstone County Deputy that is heading this up. The initial plan right now is to send a K9 and two additional Inspectors up there for the 5th. This is the first I have heard anything about the 28th. I will make sure all involved are on top of the 28th as well. Hi there,

The local law enforcement community is planning for a protest to be held on Friday, October 28th and Saturday, November 5th. The Marshals met with local PD, we met today with County and County Sheriff's office. The current expectation is they will be on County property, but there is concern they could move to federal property as we are adjacent at the Battin CH and new CH. Carl is gone and I've had many ask me about FPS's role in this. Have you received any information?

p.s. Would you please respond and copy (b)(6), (b)(7)(c), as I can't seem to find the card he gave me.

All,

(b)(6), (b)(7)(c) just called me to give me the heads-up that the DEA recently arrested a number of medical marijuana users/manufacturers, and that they are currently in custody at the USMS/AAA Courthouse.

(b)(6), (b)(7)(c) said that those arrested are due to appear in front of the US Magistrate within an hour or so, and that there may be protestors at the Courthouse.

Additionally, we discussed the recent demonstrations surrounding the Wall Street groups in Denver, and the possibility that they may migrate towards the DFO. I assured (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) that we had eyes on the Wall Street demonstrators around the Capitol, and that we would respond appropriately if they should appear at one of our protected facilities. Also, (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) asked me to let him know if we see the groups moving toward the DFO.

If we see demonstrators from the Wall Street group or those who might be protesting due to the medical marijuana arrests at, or moving towards the DFO, please give me a call so I can advise the Marshal.

Thanks.

Occupy Honolulu” group talks about ...

About 100 people calling themselves “Occupy Honolulu,” aligned with the “Occupy Wall Street” movement that has been protesting Wall Street in New York, gathered in Chinatown Gateway Park in Honolulu over the weekend.

The Honolulu Star-Advertiser reports that the group had a number of issues in addition to frustration with big business, including funding for education and social programs, small business and protesting the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation meetings in Honolulu next month. The newspaper reports that members of the group planned to return to the park at the corner of Hotel and Bethel streets on Monday to work on their identity.

Protests In Works for Hawaii APEC Meeting NEW!

Government and business leaders in Honolulu and Hawaii have been busy preparing to roll out the red carpet for the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation meetings this fall.

After all, the APEC summit, which will be held Nov. 7-13, will bring the leaders of 21 Asia-Pacific nations for a series of meetings and related events.

The host is President Barack Obama, and security will be on high alert. All told, the APEC summit could bring some 20,000 government and business leaders, their family and friends and 2,000 journalists.

APEC's international spotlight, however, is also attracting groups who oppose APEC and what they perceive to be its agenda to promote corporate and military interests at the expense of local economies, homeless people, labor, the environment and indigenous populations.

That is not the kind of public face APEC supporters want to present to the world — that is, a place between East and West for business as well as leisure.

'APEC Sucks'

A leaflet being distributed by anti-APEC groups in the islands is titled "APEC Sucks."

The leaflet is produced by World Can't Wait Hawaii, the local chapter of a national organization that formed in 2005 "to halt and reverse the terrible program of war, repression and theocracy that was initiated by the Bush/Cheney regime and the ongoing crimes that continue to this day."

Side one of the leaflet states:

Using "free trade" as a codeword, APEC proposes policies that give imperialist powers and multinational corporations the "right" to go into oppressed countries and take out whatever they want, with as few restrictions as possible.

In addition to spending money on upgrading facilities, the leaflet states that the City and County of Honolulu has budgeted tens of millions of dollars for security.

"All this is happening when austerity measures are hitting people hard," the leaflet states. "Social services cut. Unions busted. Salaries slashed. The city's infrastructure broken."

Side two of the leaflet details how APEC's economic models have led to "record corporate profits" and "resulted in enormous social and environmental costs for the majority of the population."

Carolyn Hadfield, a member of World Can't Wait Hawaii, said the group has not decided how many demonstrations to hold. But the top of its list includes the Nov. 12 reception and dinner for APEC leaders at the Hale Koa Hotel in Waikiki.

"APEC uses words like 'cooperation' and 'sustainability' that have a soft, fuzzy feeling, and eyes glaze over when people hear talk of 'trade relations' and 'lifting tariffs,'" Hadfield told Civil Beat. "That doesn't hit people emotionally. But when people become more familiar with what APEC is really about — neoliberalism — they change their mind."

Hadfield said she is "totally disgusted" by the beautification efforts being conducted on behalf of the APEC meeting, which she said includes the repaving of sidewalks, the dredging of sand to expand beaches and the relocation of 205 palm trees to be planted along Nimitz Highway.

"Social services need this money," she said. "The big rationalization is that this will help tourism, but I don't think it will bring that much money or an uptick in tourism — and in any case it would be at the high end of tourists."

World Can't Wait Hawaii has been holding community forums to get the word out on APEC. In addition to protests, film showings and forums are planned.

Protest History

Past annual APEC meetings, which rotate between member nations, have attracted protests, including in Yokohama, Japan, in 2010, Lima, Peru, in 2008, Sydney, Australia, in 2007 and Busan, South Korea, in 2005. Singapore — a nation known for severe fines for spitting out chewing gum — clamped down on protest laws for the 2009 meeting.

There are protest songs like "APEC Really Sucks," too, which can be downloaded.

Here's an excerpt:

APEC says it's a friend to all, but if you're poor you'll take the fall.

APEC says child labour is fine, 2 bucks a day on the production line.

They're a friendly bunch like Ziang Zemin. He likes to play tanks at Tiannamen.

Internet reports indicate that most APEC protests have been peaceful. Such was not the case, though, for the 1997 summit in Vancouver, Canada.

"I was personally involved in anti-APEC in Vancouver, and it was very spirited and large," said Nandita Sharma, who works with an art-environment-anarchist group called Eating in Public, which was founded by Sharma and UH Manoa Art Professor Gaye Chan in 2003. "It was very violent from the perspective of the state. The police used pepper spray and tear gas on protestors, who were basically standing on the road — this in a supposedly liberal democratic nation like Canada. We saw that as a precursor to Seattle in 1999."

Sharma is referring to the powerful protests that erupted over the World Trade Organization meeting that year. She speculates that Honolulu was chosen for the 2011 meeting because of its relative isolation — something APEC officials say is not the case.

Eating In Public has downloads of anti-APEC literature, T-shirts and signs on its website. Like World Can't Wait, it believes that APEC's mission favors corporate profit over social good.

UPDATE: But Eating In Public plans no protests.<sup>1</sup>

Meanwhile, another group, Moana Nui, plans a conference set for Nov. 9-11 in Honolulu.

The conference — titled "The Pacific Peoples, Their Lands and Economies" — is being organized by scholars, community and political activists and Hawaiian and Pacific Islander cultural practitioners, and was intentionally scheduled to coincide with APEC.

The shadow summit, according to Moana Nui, "is intended to provide a voice and possible direction for the economies of Pacific Islands in the era of powerful transnational corporations, global industrial expansion and global climate change."

UH Manoa Hawaiian Studies Professor Jonathan Osorio, who is part of the Moana Nui conference, told Civil Beat, "APEC is a sovereignty issue. It is a sovereignty issue not just for Hawaii and our unique sovereignty issues with the United States. This for all Pacific Islanders, and the reason is APEC as an institution seeking to facilitate the growth of capital and trade and involvement between the U.S. and Asia."

Osorio continued: "To the extent that APEC has anything at all to do with Pacific Islanders in general, it tends to try to facilitate investment in island economies. Our belief is that Pacific Islanders are better off strengthening traditions and subsistence modes of economic development than essentially succumbing to large-scale investments that often lead to transfer ownership of lands and resources out of native hands."

Diverse Voices Welcome

Hawaii's history of protest has been mixed, ranging from large labor union strikes and Native Hawaiian unity marches to smaller groups opposing foreign wars and militarization of the islands.

Following the Seattle WTO fiasco in 1999, Hawaii braced for a similar outcome for a meeting of the Asian Development Bank in 2001 at the Hawaii Convention Center. That turned out to be a peaceful gathering, with ADB leaders meeting directly with demonstrators.

While security will be intense for APEC, including use of street cameras, the creation of a "demonstration zone" — the identification of a specific protest site that has become a common practice at large, controversial events like political party conventions — is not planned.

"In Hawaii in particular, we have a history of diversity of opinions," said Tim Johns, vice chair of the APEC Hawaii Host Committee. "From the host committee standpoint, we see value in that diversity and we think that people should have their opportunity to share their views. Nothing we would do would prevent that from happening."

Responding to allegations that Honolulu was selected to host APEC because of its relative isolation, Johns noted that Honolulu was a finalist along with San Francisco and Los Angeles. While foreign leaders may find it easier to fly into Honolulu because of secure military bases like Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam, he said he did not recall safety factoring into Honolulu's bid.

"The president made the decision," he said. "With everything we have been hearing from the White House and Department of State — that we are a society that values diversity of opinion and free speech — I don't think they would have chosen a location with the purpose to stifle that."

1. An earlier version of this story incorrectly stated that Eating In Public was collaborating with the Moanu Nui conference.

World leaders will gather in Honolulu less than a month from now to talk business.

Efforts to protest the APEC meeting are getting underway.

In some cases those speaking out are combining the anti-APEC sentiment with the global protests under the "Occupy" banner.

While groups from Occupy Wall Street to Occupy Honolulu continue to take to parks and streets, many of them say they see next month's APEC event as exactly what they stand against.

"There's a global consciousness happening, and I think people can be pushed and pushed to a point, where now people are saying wait a minute," said anti-APEC protestor Kat Brady. "The 99 % is the people, and APEC is the corporations"

"We here in Honolulu are going to be at the heart of where the 1% lands -- APEC is the 1%," said anti-APEC protestor Nandita Sharma.

Next month President Obama and the heads of 20 other Asia-Pacific nations, plus CEOs of major corporations arrive in Honolulu for the global event.

An early APEC-related climate change conference at the University of Hawaii became the target of an anti-APEC protest Monday.

They gathered across the street from the East-West Center, then marched to the lawn outside of a luncheon of conference delegates.

"I hope that they're feeling that they're not going to get a free ride," Sharma says. "No one is talking publicly about the harm that APEC does, so I hope that they're getting the message that not all of us have bought into the propaganda."

Both APEC critics and supporters, though, say they believe it will be a peaceful protest.

"The organizers contacted the campus, as well as campus security to let us know it was being planned and where it was being planned, so it was done in a very orderly and respectful manner," said UH Manoa spokesman Gregg Takayama.

The American Civil Liberties Union of Hawaii says they have heard from many groups that want to protest during APEC, but the ACLU has not yet assessed how difficult it will be to do so.

"Without knowing where the secure zones are, it's hard for the ACLU to determine what legal action in particular may be required," said Vanessa Chong of the ACLU of Hawaii.

Protestors say they'll get the word out no matter what, and in a way that makes sure they're heard.

"I don't think that there's going to be anything beyond a peaceful protest here, I really don't," Sharma says.

Meanwhile another assembly of "Occupy Honolulu" gets underway at 6 o'clock at Magic Island. That movement gathered several hundred for a march through Waikiki last weekend.

Occupy Santa Ana to begin on Oct. 22

Posted by Admin on October 15th, 2011

October 22, 2011 12:00 pm to October 23, 2011 3:00 pm

Occupy Santa Ana is set for Saturday, October 22 at 12:00pm - Sunday, January 22, 2012 at 3:00pm, according to their Facebook page, which includes this introduction:

Occupy Orange County is leaderless resistance movement in solidarity with Occupy Wall Street with people of many colors, genders and political persuasions. The one thing we all have in common is that We Are The 99% that will no longer tolerate the greed and corruption of the 1%. We are using the revolutionary Arab Spring tactic to achieve our ends and encourage the use of nonviolence to maximize the safety of all participants. Join us in occupying Orange County, CA on October 22nd 2011 at the Ronald Reagan Federal Building in Santa Ana. We are the 99% and we DO exist in Orange County.

Whether or not these folks will be allowed to camp out in Santa Ana is a matter of some debate.

According to the OC Weekly, "Santa Ana Police officials and City Attorney Teresa Judd met with members of Occupy Santa Ana yesterday and informed them that the municipal code doesn't allow camping on city property. "

Hello -

We are working on an article about Occupy Phoenix and I am hoping you might be willing and able to help.

Firstly, backers of Occupy Phoenix have reported Homeland Security personnel at Chavez Plaza and our staff has seen people wearing Homeland Security Bureau shirts at courtrooms hearing cases regarding Occupy Phoenix.

Is homeland security using their personnel to monitor Occupy Phoenix?

When our staff asked the gentleman at the courthouse if he was really with homeland security, he would not answer and just walked away.

Thanks

OPD is planning on directing the march east (towards Lake Merritt, away from 1301 Clay). The group is trying to get permission to spend the night at city hall, but no word on granting the request. Capt. (b)(6),(b7)(c) will call if anything happens and I'll advise PSOS at 1301 to be extra vigilant.

RE: Police Arrest OCCUPY Protestors in Oakland, CA this morning

(b)(6),(b7)(c)

To clarify, this morning FPS notified the FEB (Federal Executive Board), who then notified the FEB Board of Directors who represent federal agencies throughout SF Bay Area. The notifications were bay area wide and not limited to the Oakland Federal Building. According to the Executive Director Francine Roby, they may need updated contacts for SSA.

We look forward to sharing more information with your agency. As we conduct police operations and collect the latest information we will disseminate to the Federal Community via the FEB as timely as possible - a good notification tool to alert all the federal agencies we protect. And of course FPS will advise specific areas of activity that may affect their federal facilities. SSA is always welcome to contact FPS for additional information or clarification on incidents that may affect their resources, and below I listed our Area Commanders for specific areas:

We appreciate you alerting the occupants in the Oakland Federal Building, however, we have two offices located in the area that are not in the federal building. My staff did not receive any notification and I requested that they contact FPS to obtain a status of what was going on in the area and whether or not we should alert our other offices. Based on the information in the news this morning, we were concerned about our employees trying to get to work in our other offices.

In the future, it would be helpful to notify the regional office as well. Thanks again for your prompt action.

(b)(6),(b7)(c)

Early this morning (5AM) I pushed out info regarding the OCCUPY Arrests in Oakland to the FEB. Was SSA not notified? According to the FEB Executive Director, they have a (b)(6),(b7)(c) listed for SSA. Is this the right person?

Also, as a reminder (b)(6),(b7)(c) is Area Commander for Oakland/San Jose, (b)(6),(b7)(c) is Area Commander for San Francisco (b)(6),(b7)(c) is the Area Commander for Sacramento/Fresno, and (b)(6),(b7)(c) is Area Commander for Hawaii/Guam, but you can contact me directly if you cannot reach one of the respective Area Commanders. My District includes SF, Oakland, SJ, Sacramento, Bakersfield, (up to Eureka) Fresno, Hawaii, and Guam. It's important federal employees get notified of incidents that may affect them so please advise if your FEB POC has changed as well.

There is a protest march that is happening now in the City by Occupy SF. One of their stops is at 90 7th St. They may stop there for 30 minutes to have some speakers.

This is just a heads up we may have to go. Will call if we do.
